

Intravenous news: HealthExec.tv Report “Cancer charity Tenovus is revolutionising the care of patients in Wales with a hi-tech mobile chemotherapy clinic that delivers treatment in the heart of local communities.

The mobile clinic, provided by specialist supplier EMS, is cutting hospital waiting times and improving patients access to vital services removing the cost and strain of travel.

Click here to view the video review on HealthExec.tv

