IPS IV Forum (2017).

IPS IV Forum report “After the tremendous success of the IV Forum Conference last year in Manchester, the Infection Prevention Society (IPS) IV Forum is hosting its 7th Annual one day conference which is being held on Thursday 16th November 2017 at Rooms on Regents Park, London. There is now recognition of the risk of infection to patients to whom IV therapy is administered. As a result, this one day conference will focus on providing education and raising awareness of best practice based on the current evidence available.”
